

Void Constitution & Law Code

v2026.01.13

Section 0 – Purpose

This Constitution establishes the rights, responsibilities, and rules for all members of Void

Objectives:

- Protect members from harassment, abuse, and disruptive behavior.
- Provide clear, enforceable rules with no loopholes.
- Maintain a safe, teen-appropriate environment.
- Ensure consistent, fair, and transparent enforcement by staff.

All members must read and understand this document. Ignorance of rules is not an excuse.

Section 1 – Member Rights

1.01 Right to Respect – Every member must be treated politely and with dignity. Personal attacks, harassment, mocking, or belittling are strictly prohibited.

1.02 Right to Voice – Members may participate in discussions, polls, and suggestion channels, provided communication is respectful.

1.03 Right to Safety – Members must feel safe from threats, intimidation, or harassment. Any direct or implied actions that threaten safety violate this right.

1.04 Right to Privacy – Members' personal info (real names, addresses, schools, social media) cannot be shared without consent. Violations are severe.

1.05 Right to Fair Enforcement – Members are entitled to consistent enforcement and may appeal actions they consider unfair. Staff must provide reasoning and cite rule numbers.

1.06 Right to Participation – Members may propose rule changes and provide suggestions; staff must review them respectfully.

1.07 Right to Accountability – Staff are accountable for fair enforcement. Members may request clarifications or explanations regarding decisions affecting them.

1.08 Right to Education – Members may access guidance to understand rules, violations, and consequences.

1.09 Right to Digital Safety – Members must be protected from malware, phishing, and malicious content.

1.10 Right to Inclusion – No discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, religion, disability, or other personal characteristics.

1.11 Right to Consent – Members' content cannot be shared, edited, or reposted without explicit permission.

1.12 Right to Appeal – Members may appeal enforcement actions respectfully, citing relevant rule numbers.

Section 2 – Vocabulary / Definitions

2.01 Constructive Criticism – Feedback intended to help improve behavior or content, delivered respectfully. Must not include personal attacks or harassment. Mislabeling rude behavior as “constructive criticism” is prohibited.

2.02 Harassment – Repeated, targeted, or deliberate behavior intended to annoy, intimidate, or harm a member.

2.03 Spam – Repeated messages, images, links, or emojis that disrupt conversation flow.

2.04 Minor Offense – Small infractions interfering with chat, media, or voice flow (Class 1).

2.05 Moderate Offense – More serious or repeated violations, including continued minor offenses or mild harassment (Class 2).

2.06 Severe Offense – Dangerous or harmful actions, repeated harassment, or behavior threatening server integrity (Class 3).

2.07 Spoiler – Information revealing plot, outcome, or surprises. Must be properly tagged.

2.08 Role Abuse – Misusing roles or permissions to bypass rules or disrupt server operation.

2.09 NSFW – Any content not safe for teens. Strictly forbidden.

2.10 Loophole – Attempts to avoid enforcement by exploiting vague language. Staff may treat these as violations.
